

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

Denver Health's Workforce Development Center exists to support our staff through financial training, wrap-around supports and most importantly with career coaching to increase economic mobility through pathways into better paying jobs.

Current State: Summer 2022

THE WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT CENTER OPENED IN APRIL 2022.

Workforce Development Intakes

78

Employees are currently seeking career advancement

Operation Hope

138

Participants received financial education and coaching since April 2022

Pathway Development

12

Pathways with room to expand to 15 in the future

Future State: Goals 2022-2023

Serve 190 employees in career advancement

200 certificates attained by our employees

Form 8 formal partnerships with non-profit training providers by end of 2022

As a large employer, Denver Health can have a significant impact on the economic mobility of our staff and ultimately our community. The Workforce Development Center is off to a strong start and is poised for growth.