Notice of Privacy Practices

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

If you have any questions, contact a Patient Representative at 303-602-2915 or the Privacy Officer by phone at 303-436-8886; by fax at 303-602-7024; or by mail at 777 Bannock Street, MC 7776, Denver, CO 80204. To learn more about Denver Health, please see www.DenverHealth.org.

Medical information about you and your health is private. We strive to protect your health records when you are in the hospital and when you are being seen in the clinics. We will use your records to care for you, to bill for care, to run the hospital, and to comply with the law. This Privacy Notice applies at all Denver Health and Hospital Authority (Denver Health) inpatient, outpatient, community clinic, and emergency services sites except for parts of the Rocky Mountain Poison and Drug Center and Denver Public Health, which do not have to follow this Notice.

This Notice tells you about the ways Denver Health may use or give out information from your private health records. It also explains your rights and our responsibilities.

Who Follows The Terms of This Notice

- Any health care provider who treats you at any of our locations
- All employees, volunteers, and staff at the hospital and clinics
- Healthcare students in training programs
- Any business associate who performs work for us that requires them to see your medical information to do their jobs

Acknowledgement of Receipt

I understand that, as allowed and required by law, Denver Health staff will use and give out my health records, without my consent or authorization, for:

- Treatment: Care providers will use my health history, symptoms, exams, test results, diagnosis, treatment and plan of care to take care of me.
- Payment: Denver Health will use my health records to bill me, my insurance or other aid programs for my care if this applies to the clinic where I receive my care.
- Healthcare Operations: Denver Health will use my health records to run the hospital and clinics and to make sure patients receive quality care.

Otherwise, Denver Health will follow the restrictions in this Notice of Privacy Practices.

I acknowledge that I have received a copy of Denver Health's Notice of Privacy Practices.

YOUR RIGHTS

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get an Electronic or Paper Copy of Your Medical Record.

You can ask to see or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record and other health information we have about you. To see or get a copy of your records, please talk to the staff where you get your care or the Medical Records Department at 303-602-8001. You may be asked to fill out a form. We will provide a copy or a summary of your health information, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, costbased fee.

In some cases, we may deny your request to read or get a copy of your records. We will give you the reason for the denial. If your request is denied, you can ask that the denial be reviewed. A care provider chosen by Denver Health will review your request. This person will not have taken care of you or have been involved in the first review. We will follow what they decide.

Ask Us to Correct Your Medical Record.

You can ask us to or correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or complete. To ask for a correction, please talk to your care provider, staff where you receive care, or the Medical Records Department at 303.602.8001. You may be asked to fill out a form and to give a reason for your request. We may say “no” to your request, but we will tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Ask for Confidential Communications.

We may contact you to remind you about an appointment, to tell you your test results, to give you information about services that may be of help or interest to you, or for other reasons related to your health. You can ask that we contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address. We will say “yes” to all reasonable requests.

To ask for specific confidentiality, talk to your care provider or staff where you receive care. We will not ask you the reason for your request. You must tell us how or where you want to be contacted.

Ask Us to Limit What We Use or Share.

You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care.

If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information for the purpose of payment or our operations with your health insurer. We will say “yes” unless a law requires us to share that information.

To ask us to limit how we use or give out your health information, talk to your care provider or staff where you receive care, contact the Medical Records Department at 303-602-8001 or contact the Privacy Officer at 303-436-8886. You may be asked to fill out a form.

Get a List of Those with Whom We Have Shared Your Information.

You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we have shared your health information for six years before the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why. We will include all of the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make).

To ask for this list, please call the Medical Records Department at 303-602-8001. You will be asked to fill out a form. You can get one list free a year, but we will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Get a Copy of this Privacy Notice.

You can ask for a paper copy of this Notice at any time, even if you already have one. provide you with a paper copy promptly, and it is always available on our website at www.denverhealth.org.

Choose Someone to Act for You.

If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

EFFECTIVE DATE: SEPTEMBER 23, 2013

File a Complaint if you Feel Your Rights are Violated.

You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights. All complaints must be given to us in writing. Mail to: Privacy Officer, 777 Bannock Street,

MC 7776, Denver, CO 80204. Fax to: 303-602- 7024. You can also make a complaint to the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights. We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint and your care will not be affected.

YOUR CHOICES

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care
- Share information in a disaster relief situation, such as the Red Cross, so that your family can be called or told about your health status.
- Include your information in a hospital directory so your family and friends who ask for you by name can call or visit you and so that you can get mail and flowers. If you do not object, we will include your name, your location, and your general condition. Also, you can tell us your religion if you want, and members of the clergy who ask to visit patients of your religion will be given your name.

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes
- Sale of your information
- Most sharing of psychotherapy notes

- Most sharing of alcohol and drug abuse treatment information maintained by Denver Health's federally assisted substance abuse treatment programs

Fundraising.

We may use your information to contact you in an effort to raise money for Denver Health. We may share this information with our affiliated Denver Health Foundation to work on our behalf. If you do not want to receive communications about fundraising (to opt out), or you wish to opt back in, call the Foundation at 303-602-2970, or send an e-mail to: dhfoundation@dhha.org.

Colorado Regional Health Information Organization (CORHIO).

CORHIO is a nonprofit organization of hospitals and doctors whose mission is to improve health care by allowing participating hospitals and doctors to exchange medical information electronically between them. This allows all of your care providers at different organizations to view your health information so that they can make better decisions about your care. If you do not want Denver Health to share your information with other participating hospitals and doctors through CORHIO, you can "opt out" by writing to the Denver Health CORHIO Point of Contact, 301 W 6th Avenue, MC0296, Denver, CO 80204.

HOW WE USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

We typically use or share your health information in the following ways:

Help Manage the Health Care Treatment You Receive.
