

DENVER HEALTH JOURNEYS

Information from your community partner in health and wellness.

April 2025

Fentanyl poisonings surge among kids

Fentanyl poisonings among children in the U.S. have exploded in recent years. A new study co-authored by a scientist at Denver Health's Rocky Mountain Poison and Drug Safety reveals how fast, and how dangerously, these cases of exposure are growing.

Read more

Life's journey moves forward for teen following crash, brush with death

New families can get postpartum support delivered to their doorstep

Denver Health's front-line workers recall early days of COVID-19 pandemic

Sneezin' season is starting earlier and hitting Coloradans with allergies hard

Denver Health invites you to join the third annual Trauma Survivors Fun Run and 5K on Saturday, May 10, at Berkeley Lake Park. The free event brings together trauma survivors their families and the Denver community to celebrate their resilience and the people who made their recoveries possible.

Register now

Careers at Denver Health

Make an Appointment

Sign up for MyChart

CLICK HERE FOR A PDF VERSION OF THIS NEWSLETTER.

