

DENVER HEALTH JOURNEYS

Information from your community partner in health and wellness.

August 2025

Patient grateful for ‘miracle’ of life

Henry Bromelkamp recently returned to Denver Health, six years after suffering a traumatic brain injury, to thank the medical teams that saved his life. “Ninety-five percent of people with my injury are dead,” he said.

Read more

Denver Health physicians shine on 5280 magazine’s ‘Top Doctors’ list

Lowry Family Health Center adds state-of-the-art imaging suite

Denver Health makes back-to-school physicals convenient for families

Participate in Black community survey to help improve health outcomes

More news and upcoming events

Bond package includes funding for new clinic

The Denver City Council on Monday approved a $950 million bond package for the November ballot. The package includes $20 million to upgrade health services at the Sam Sandos Westside Family Health Center. Learn more here.

Join Denver Health at Komen walk

Denver Health is co-sponsoring the 2025 Komen Colorado More Than Pink Walk on Oct. 18 at City Park. Our Breast Care Center team is raising awareness about early detection and support for the fight to end breast cancer. Patients, staff and community members are invited. Join the Denver Health team here.

See ‘Stories in Black and White’ exhibit

Denver Health’s Center for Addiction Medicine is hosting a photography exhibit, “Stories in Black and White,” centered around people affected by the opioid crisis. Learn more here.

You Decide Denver celebration set for Aug. 14

The Center for Addiction Medicine’s You Decide Denver initiative seeks community input to help shape substance use recovery efforts. The You Decide Denver team is bringing together community organizations, local vendors, music and neighbors to celebrate and collect ideas from 4-7 p.m. on Aug. 14 in the Rita Bass Trauma and EMS Institute parking lot, 190 W. Sixth Ave. The all-ages event is free and open to the public. Learn more about You Decide Denver in this Journeys story.

Join the Journey.

Support Denver Health Foundation with a gift today.

Careers at Denver Health

Make an Appointment

Sign up for MyChart

CLICK HERE FOR A PDF VERSION OF THIS NEWSLETTER.

